

MCQ1: The following sources, except one can be used to obtain the definition of geography or the technical phrase geographical knowledge
Answer: exercise books

MCQ2: _____ are important names in the development of modern geography.
Answer: H.J. Mackinder and A.J. Herbertson

MCQ3: The invention of _____ by Galileo during the renaissance helped geography and geographical knowledge.
Answer: telescope

MCQ4: River Jordan is located in _____
Answer: Palestine

MCQ5: _____ study the space relations of earth's, places and features like human activities and environmental pollution/degradation
Answer: Geographers

MCQ6: Edward Wright pioneered the attaching of _____ sights to surveying instruments. , another big boost to the expanding geographical horizon
Answer: telescopic

MCQ7: Geography has no business in the study the nature of available infrastructure such as roads, water supply within a place. _____
Answer: FALSE

MCQ8: The founders of modern geography are usually considered to be _____; the former a great scientist and traveller, the latter an historian who systematized and minutely scrutinized available recorded geographical observations
Answer: Alexander Humboldt (1769 – 1859) and Karl Ritter (1779 – 1859)

MCQ9: _____ was the high priest
Answer: Eleaza

MCQ10: The nature of inhabitants is never in history part of the interest of geography.

Answer: FALSE

MCQ11: The expansion of overseas colonies, overseas trade and of the volume of naval and merchant shipping notably in the _____ in the 17th and 18th centuries, further ensured both popular and official interest in geography
Answer: Netherlands

MCQ12: The main purpose of bible geography is to show how the _____ of Israel became an inseparable part of the very essence of the Jewish people
Answer: land

MCQ13: After the Jordan had been crossed, the people attacked and sacked.

Answer: Jericho

MCQ14: One of these is a discipline in geographical study

Answer: physical geography

MCQ15: _____ are regarded in many circles as "the fathers of geography"

Answer: Homer and Herodotus

MCQ16: Jesus met his disciples while _____

Answer: Fishing

MCQ17: Dictionaries are the only source to obtain information on the definition of geography. _____

Answer: FALSE

MCQ18: All the information about the ministry of Malachi is contained in the book of _____

Answer: Malachi

MCQ19: The first set of disciples of Jesus were _____

Answer: Fishermen

MCQ20: Moses set before the Israelites the alternatives of _____

Answer: blessings

MCQ21: The major message of the Bible is that God is the _____ Answer: creator

MCQ22: _____ was one of the foremost early geomorphologists, who described the geographical knowledge of the ancient/early days as "fanciful and ludicrous"

Answer: W. D. Thornbury

MCQ23: _____ challenged Aaron's high priesthood

Answer: Korah

MCQ24: Jacob (Israel) was the father of _____ children

Answer: 12

MCQ25: Fon name for priest is _____

Answer: Atama

MCQ26: The comparative study of places are outside the the major interests in geography

Answer: FALSE

MCQ27: The period of seclusion among the Sande society of Poro lasted for _____ months

Answer: 3

MCQ28: God also purposed to destroy those who destroyed the _____

Answer: earth

MCQ29: Joshua first addressed the leaders of _____

Answer: Israel

MCQ30: One of the major disciplines in Geography is _____

Answer: regional geography

MCQ31: Unlike many other disciplines, the development of geographical thought and knowledge featured only one phase, that is, the early modern phase. _____

Answer: FALSE

MCQ32: The initiation rites of the Sande prepare girls into _____

Answer: motherhood

MCQ33: According to the Bible the donkey is called _____

Answer: Holy animal

MCQ34: Encyclopaedias are the only source to obtain information on the definition of geography. _____

Answer: FALSE

MCQ35: When the exiles returned to Jerusalem, Judah had neither nationhood nor _____

Answer: political status

MCQ36: Textbooks are the only source to obtain information on the definition of geography. _____

Answer: FALSE

MCQ37: The systematic _____ voyages of discovery directed by Prince Henry the Navigator, as well as later ones, constituted one of the sets of landmarks in the development of geography and geographical knowledge.

Answer: Portuguese

MCQ38: One of the tasks of _____ is to interpret the location of places through the maps.

Answer: geographers

MCQ39: _____ has the highest concentrate of salt compared to any other body of water

Answer: Dead

MCQ40: _____, who lived during the renaissance period, precisely at the beginning of the 15th century, provided a remarkable landmark in the development of the geographic thought

Answer: Ptolemy

MCQ41: The book of Ezra is a straight forward account of one of the most important events in _____ history.
Answer: Jewish

MCQ42: One of the tasks of geography is to satisfy the desire by most people, who want to have more information about places than their locations give
Answer: TRUE

MCQ43: _____ took permission to go and aid the returnees in Jerusalem
Answer: Nehemiah

MCQ44: The Bible is written from the background of the _____ Answer: Jewish

MCQ45: Bible geography stands squarely at the interface between the land and the people of the Bible _____
Answer: land

MCQ46: The study of the nature of the surrounding and how people have used them belongs to field of geography. _____
Answer: TRUE

MCQ47: The study of the nature of the surrounding and how people have used them belongs to other field of knowledge rather than geography. _____
Answer: FALSE

MCQ48: The boundaries of Judah extended from the Dead Sea westward to the _____ Answer: Mediterranean

MCQ49: Bible geography explains to all, who accept the Bible as part of their cultural heritage, the significance of the relationship between the _____ of Israel and the faith of the people (Jews).
Answer: land

MCQ50: God's children have _____
Answer: Heart

FBQ1: In _____ traditional belief system spirits are ubiquitous
Answer: African

FBQ2: What is the meaning of Palestine? _____land
Answer: Philistine

FBQ3: The expansion of overseas colonies, overseas trade and of the volume of naval and merchant shipping notably in _____ in the 17th and 18th centuries, further ensured both popular and official interest in geography

Answer: France

FBQ4: Volcanoes can cause natural changes on the face of the _____ Answer: earth

FBQ5: Palestine did not have good natural _____
Answer: harbour

FBQ6: According to the Synoptic Gospels, Jesus called his first disciples while they were _____
Answer: Fishing

FBQ7: _____ study the space relations of earth's places and features landscape and settlement pattern
Answer: Geographers

FBQ8: The Temple is one of the most exquisite buildings in ancient _____
Answer: Israel

FBQ9: Regional Geography is one of the major disciplines in _____ Answer: geography

FBQ10: The study of geography reveals that changes can be made by nature, which includes erosion, _____ and deposition
Answer: rock weathering

FBQ11: After the Israelites had crossed Jordan, they attacked and sacked the city of _____
Answer: Jericho

FBQ12: Plateau is naturally divided into _____ sections
Answer: 5

FBQ13: Earthquakes can cause natural changes on the face of the _____ Answer: earth

FBQ14: The study of geography reveals that changes can be made by nature, which includes erosion, rock weathering and _____.
Answer: deposition

FBQ15: _____ took permission to go and aid the returnees in Jerusalem
Answer: Nehemiah

FBQ16: Eleaza was a high _____

Answer: priest

FBQ17: The main river in Egypt is River _____

Answer: Nile

FBQ18: The word "breath"™ in the Bible invariable refers to _____

Answer: spirit

FBQ19: It is within the ambit of geography to finish students with information on the _____ type some people are living in

Answer: house

FBQ20: Moses set before the Israelites the alternatives of _____

Answer: blessings

FBQ21: Christ followers are of this _____

Answer: World

FBQ22: The completion of the temple has boosted not just the morale of the returnees but also increased their faith in

Answer: God

FBQ23: Textbooks are one of the sources to obtain information on the _____ of geography

Answer: definition

FBQ24: The Dead Sea is also called the Sea of _____

Answer: Arabah

FBQ25: Physical _____ is a discipline in geographical study

Answer: Â

FBQ26: _____ plain stretched from Mount Carmel to Joppa

Answer: Sharon

FBQ27: Dictionaries are one of sources to obtain _____ on the definition of geography

Answer: information

FBQ28: Alexander Humboldt is a great _____ and traveller who contributed to the systematisation of the knowledge of geography

Answer: scientist

FBQ29: Bible geography stands squarely at the interface between land and _____

Answer: people

FBQ30: Joshua first addressed the leaders of _____

Answer: Israel

FBQ31: One can obtain the definition of geography or the technical phrase 'geographical knowledge' from encyclopaedias, textbooks and _____

Answer: dictionaries

FBQ32: The period of seclusion among the Sande society of Poro lasted for _____ months

Answer: three

FBQ33: Haggai was among the Jewish exiles that returned to _____

Answer: Jerusalem

FBQ34: Bible geography stands squarely at the interface between the land and the people of the Bible _____

Answer: land

FBQ35: The _____ War consolidated the position of geography and geographers, whose contributions to strategy in war and to reconstruction in peace was much appreciated.

Answer: Second World

FBQ36: Joshua after taking over the leadership from Moses led the Israelites to cross River _____

Answer: Jordan

FBQ37: The systematic Portuguese voyages of discovery directed by Prince _____ the Navigator

Answer: Henry

FBQ38: The goddess of _____ fosters social unity among the Igbo group

Answer: Ala

FBQ39: _____ always been a place of attraction to Israel's enemies

Answer: Ā

FBQ40: The nature of inhabitants is in history part of the interest of _____

Answer: geography

FBQ41: _____ Sea has the highest concentrate of salt compared to any other body of water

Answer: Dead

FBQ42: The expansion of overseas colonies results into an explosion of _____ knowledge

Answer: geographical

FBQ43: River Jordan is located in _____

Answer: Palestine

FBQ44: _____ are agents of changes on the face of the earth through the activities of slum clearance

Answer: Humans

FBQ45: The Bible is characterised by both variety and _____

Answer: unity

FBQ46: In African Traditional Religion, a person who uses bad magic is called a _____

Answer: magician

FBQ47: The comparative study of places are within the the major interests in _____

Answer: geography

FBQ48: Geography is of great practical importance to the affairs of _____

Answer: humans

FBQ49: One of the major interests of Geography is the study of the nature of available _____ such as roads, water supply within a place

Answer: infrastructure

FBQ50: _____, who lived during the renaissance period, precisely at the beginning of the 15th century, provided a remarkable landmark in the development of the geographic thought

Answer: Ptolemy

Downloaded from moungeeks.com