

NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY OF NIGERIA
PLOT 91, CADASTRAL ZONE, JABI, ABUJA

Department of Jurisprudence and International Law.

Faculty of Law

National Open University of Nigeria

JIL512: Principles of Public International Law 11

2021 Academic Session

Answer Question 1 and 3 others (Question 1 carries 25 marks)

Time 3 hours

2021_1

Question 1. Self-determination is a group right under the United Nations' Charter. Discuss Total 25 marks

Question 2. Explain the facts and the holding of the International Court of Justice made in the Aasland's Island case. Discuss. 15 marks

Question3. The process of independent is governed by United Nations rules. Discuss 15 marks

Question4. The Latin Maxim of uti Possendentis is a relevant principle under international law. Discuss. 15 marks

Question5. You have been asked to identify and explain the various methods of self-determination and their consequences under international law. How will your presentation be? 15 marks

Question 6. Article I of the International Covenant on Human Rights shows that recognition of political right alone is not enough. Hence, the passing into law by the United Nations General Assembly a resolution for economic self-determination which invest on independent states the right to control their economics and economic resources without external interference. Explain 15 marks