

MCQ1: According to functionalists, society is a self-contained system made of interconnected and _____ parts

Answer: interrelated

MCQ2: _____ theories proceed from the assumption that consensus exists in society

Answer: Consensus

MCQ3: In sociology, the two dominant views of law are the consensus/functionalist and the _____ perspectives.

Answer: Conflict

MCQ4: Generally, the sociology of law is concerned with the nature of law, its sources and _____

Answer: Functions

MCQ5: Sociology as an academic course of study emerged in the _____ century

Answer: Mid-twentieth

MCQ6: In any successful military coup in Nigeria the first casualty is the _____ which is immediately suspended

Answer: Constitution

MCQ7: The military struck on 15th January _____ in a coup

Answer: 1966

MCQ8: The 1960 independence constitution of Nigeria marked the beginning of----- rule

Answer: Civil

MCQ9: In colonial Nigeria the major sources of procedural laws were the _____ for criminal procedure

Answer: Criminal Procedure Act

MCQ10: During the colonial period, the major source of law was the ----- English law

Answer: received

MCQ11: The Northern and Southern Protectorates of Nigeria were amalgamated ----- into one political unit called Nigeria

Answer: 1914

MCQ12: In 1861 King Dosunmu of Lagos signed a document called the _____ thereby formally ceding Lagos to the British

Answer: Treaty of Cession

MCQ13: The personnel of the Shariah legal system in the North were learned _____ scholars

Answer: Islamic

MCQ14: In pre-colonial Nigeria, the basic source of law in the Islamic part of the North was the Holy _____

Answer: Koran(Qur'an)

MCQ15: British colonial adventure began in Nigeria in _____

Answer: 1861

MCQ16: The first and most seminal definition of law was given by _____ in 1915

Answer: A.V. Dicey

MCQ17: The assertion, "your right to swing your fist ends where my nose begins" was made popular by _____

Answer: Lord Denning

MCQ18: If everyone is allowed to do anything in the name of freedom, society may slide into the _____ state of nature where life is short, nasty and brutish.

Answer: Hobbesian

MCQ19: _____ freedom is liberty to do what one wants to do within the limits imposed by law

Answer: legal

MCQ20: The ability to do what one wishes to do without restraint is called _____

Answer: Freedom

MCQ21: The requirements that one must hear the other side in a dispute and must not be a judge in his own case are fundamental principles of _____ justice

Answer: Natural

MCQ22: The element of force is absent in _____ law

Answer: International

MCQ23: The idea that the state or the government is a product of an agreement between the governor and the governed best qualifies the _____ contract idea

Answer: Social

MCQ24: The force that is associated with law is that which is characterized by legitimacy and _____

Answer: Authority

MCQ25: Dishonesty, living in sin, etc, are examples of _____

Answer: immorality

MCQ26: The notion of what is right or wrong is known as _____

Answer: Morality

MCQ27: The most dominant figure in the founding of the sociological school is _____

Answer: Roscoe Pound

MCQ28: The argument that law is not unique but only one method of social control is credited to the _____ school of jurisprudence

Answer: Sociological

MCQ29: _____ is the founding father of the historical school of jurisprudence

Answer: Frederick Savigny

MCQ30: The assertion that law is not just an abstract set of rules but an integral part of society was espoused by the _____ school of jurisprudence

Answer: Historical

MCQ31: According to Jeremy Bentham, a critical understanding of law that investigations are carried into _____ areas of law

Answer: Eight

MCQ32: The school of jurisprudence which asserts that natural law was unscientific, and dominated by untested and untestable philosophical speculation is the _____ school.

Answer: Positivist

MCQ33: The postulation that what is natural is that which is common to all mankind was made by _____

Answer: Aristotle

MCQ34: The major postulation of natural law theorists is that the good society is one in which laws _____ are harmonized with natural laws.

Answer: Man-made

MCQ35: In law, man-made laws are called _____ laws

Answer: Positive

MCQ36: Another name for natural laws is _____

Answer: Higher or divine laws

MCQ37: Marxist theorists argue that the manner of ownership of production divides society into two antagonistic classes called the capitalists and the _____

Answer: Working class

MCQ38: Another argument about law that what is needed in society is not law but education is credited to _____

Answer: Plato

MCQ39: The title of Hobbes's book published in 1651 is _____

Answer: The Leviathan

MCQ40: According to _____ society without law is a very inevitable recipe for disaster

Answer: Thomas Hobbes

MCQ41: The assertion that man by nature is evil and the law is needed to keep his evil inclination in check was made by the _____ school of philosophy in China

Answer: Confucianism

MCQ42: Law performs _____ functions

Answer: Six

MCQ43: _____ laws prescribe procedures that must be followed in prosecuting offenders through the criminal justice system

Answer: Procedural

MCQ44: The staff strength of OSL company is

Answer: 3000 guards

MCQ45: The law governing conduct which is not punishable by the state is known as _____ law

Answer: Civil

MCQ46: In law, those aspects of law dealing with offences that are punishable by the state fall under _____ law

Answer: criminal

MCQ47: Law is classified into three major divisions: criminal and civil law; public and private law and _____ and _____

Answer: Substantive/procedural

MCQ48: The definition of law as a rule laid down for the guidance of an intelligent being by an intelligent being having power over him is credited to _____

Answer: John Austin

MCQ49: The word sociology is a hybrid one coined by the acclaimed father of sociology called _____

Answer: Auguste Comte

MCQ50: The etymological meaning of sociology is derived from two words of Latin and Greek roots "Socius and _____

Answer: Logos

MCQ1: According to functionalists, society is a self-contained system made of interconnected and _____ parts

Answer: interrelated

MCQ2: _____ theories proceed from the assumption that consensus exists in society

Answer: Consensus

MCQ3: In sociology, the two dominant views of law are the consensus/functionalist and the _____ perspectives.

Answer: Conflict

MCQ4: Generally, the sociology of law is concerned with the nature of law, its sources and _____

Answer: Functions

MCQ5: Sociology as an academic course of study emerged in the _____ century

Answer: Mid-twentieth

MCQ6: In any successful military coup in Nigeria the first casualty is the _____ which is immediately suspended

Answer: Constitution

MCQ7: The military struck on 15th January _____ in a coup

Answer: 1966

MCQ8: The 1960 independence constitution of Nigeria marked the beginning of ----- rule

Answer: Civil

MCQ9: In colonial Nigeria the major sources of procedural laws were the _____ for criminal procedure

Answer: Criminal Procedure Act

MCQ10: During the colonial period, the major source of law was the ----- English law

Answer: received

MCQ11: The Northern and Southern Protectorates of Nigeria were amalgamated ----- into one political unit called Nigeria

Answer: 1914

MCQ12: In 1861 King Dosunmu of Lagos signed a document called the _____ thereby formally ceding Lagos to the British

Answer: Treaty of Cession

MCQ13: The personnel of the Shariah legal system in the North were learned _____ scholars

Answer: Islamic

MCQ14: In pre-colonial Nigeria, the basic source of law in the Islamic part of the North was the Holy _____

Answer: Koran(Quran)

MCQ15: British colonial adventure began in Nigeria in _____
Answer: 1861

MCQ16: The first and most seminal definition of law was given by _____ in 1915
Answer: A.V. Dicey

MCQ17: The assertion, "your right to swing your fist ends where my nose begins" was made popular by _____
Answer: Lord Denning

MCQ18: If everyone is allowed to do anything in the name of freedom, society may slide into the _____ state of nature where life is short, nasty and brutish.
Answer: Hobbesian

MCQ19: _____ freedom is liberty to do what one wants to do within the limits imposed by law
Answer: legal

MCQ20: The ability to do what one wishes to do without restraint is called _____
Answer: Freedom

MCQ21: The requirements that one must hear the other side in a dispute and must not be a judge in his own case are fundamental principles of _____ justice
Answer: Natural

MCQ22: The element of force is absent in _____ law
Answer: International

MCQ23: The idea that the state or the government is a product of an agreement between the governor and the governed best qualifies the _____ contract idea
Answer: Social

MCQ24: The force that is associated with law is that which is characterized by legitimacy and _____
Answer: Authority

MCQ25: Dishonesty, living in sin, etc, are examples of _____
Answer: immorality

MCQ26: The notion of what is right or wrong is known as _____
Answer: Morality

MCQ27: The most dominant figure in the founding of the sociological school is _____
Answer: Roscoe Pound

MCQ28: The argument that law is not unique but only one method of social control is credited to the _____ school of jurisprudence

Answer: Sociological

MCQ29: _____ is the founding father of the historical school of jurisprudence

Answer: Frederich Savigny

MCQ30: The assertion that law is not just an abstract set of rules but an integral part of society was espoused by the _____ school of jurisprudence

Answer: Historical

MCQ31: According to Jeremy Bentham, a critical understanding of law that investigations are carried into _____ areas of law

Answer: Eight

MCQ32: The school of jurisprudence which asserts that natural law was unscientific, and dominated by untested and untestable philosophical speculation is the _____ school.

Answer: Positivist

MCQ33: The postulation that what is natural is that which is common to all mankind was made by _____

Answer: Aristotle

MCQ34: The major postulation of natural law theorists is that the good society is one in which laws _____ are harmonized with natural laws.

Answer: Man-made

MCQ35: In law, man-made laws are called _____ laws

Answer: Positive

MCQ36: Another name for natural laws is _____

Answer: Higher or divine laws

MCQ37: Marxist theorists argue that the manner of ownership of production divides society into two antagonistic classes called the capitalists and the _____

Answer: Working class

MCQ38: Another argument about law that what is needed in society is not law but education is credited to _____

Answer: Plato

MCQ39: The title of Hobbes's book published in 1651 is _____

Answer: The Leviathan

MCQ40: According to _____ society without law is a very inevitable recipe for disaster

Answer: Thomas Hobbes

MCQ41: The assertion that man by nature is evil and the law is needed to keep his evil inclination in check was made by the _____ school of philosophy in China
Answer: Confucianism

MCQ42: Law performs _____ functions
Answer: Six

MCQ43: _____ laws prescribe procedures that must be followed in prosecuting offenders through the criminal justice system
Answer: Procedural

MCQ44: The staff strength of OSL company is
Answer: 3000 guards

MCQ45: The law governing conduct which is not punishable by the state is known as _____ law
Answer: Civil

MCQ46: In law, those aspects of law dealing with offences that are punishable by the state fall under _____ law
Answer: criminal

MCQ47: Law is classified into three major divisions: criminal and civil law; public and private law and _____ and _____
Answer: Substantive/procedural

MCQ48: The definition of law as a rule laid down for the guidance of an intelligent being by an intelligent being having power over him is credited to _____
Answer: John Austin

MCQ49: The word sociology is a hybrid one coined by the acclaimed father of sociology called _____
Answer: Auguste Comte

MCQ50: The etymological meaning of sociology is derived from two words of Latin and Greek roots "Socius and _____"
Answer: Logus

FBQ1: The etymological meaning of sociology as the study of society is derived from two words of Latin and Greek origins "Socius and _____"
Answer: Logus

FBQ2: Sociology is a hybrid word coined by the father of sociology, _____
Answer: Auguste Comte

FBQ3: The definition of law as a rule laid down for the guidance of an intelligent being by an intelligent being having power over him is credited to _____
Answer: John Austin

FBQ4: Law is classified into three major divisions: criminal and civil law, public and private law and Substantive and _____ law

Answer: procedural

FBQ5: In law, those aspects of law dealing with offences or crimes that are punishable by the state fall under _____ law.

Answer: criminal

FBQ6: The law governing conduct which is not punishable by the state is known as _____ law

Answer: civil

FBQ7: _____ law refers to the bodies of law which define offences and prescribes penalties for violation

Answer: Substantive

FBQ8: _____ laws prescribe procedures that must be followed in prosecuting offenders and other persons through the justice system

Answer: Procedural

FBQ9: Law performs _____ major functions

Answer: Six

FBQ10: The argument that man is by nature evil and the law is needed to keep his evil inclination in check is traceable to the _____ school of philosophy in China

Answer: Legist

FBQ11: According to _____ society without law is a veritable recipe for disaster

Answer: Thomas Hobbes

FBQ12: The view was contained in Hobbes book the _____ published in 1651

Answer: Leviathan

FBQ13: The other aspect of the argument that what is needed in society is not law but education is credited to _____

Answer: Plato

FBQ14: Marxist theorists argue that the manner of ownership of the means of production divides society into two antagonistic classes called the the capitalist (bourgeois) and the _____

Answer: Working class

FBQ15: Another name for natural law is _____

Answer: Higher law

FBQ16: In law, man-made laws are called _____

Answer: Positive laws

FBQ17: The major postulation of natural law theorists is that the good society is one in which _____ laws are harmonized with natural

Answer: Man-made

FBQ18: The assertion that what is natural is that which is common to all mankind was coined by _____

Answer: Aristotle

FBQ19: The school of jurisprudence which argued that natural law was unscientific and dominated by untested and untestable philosophical speculations is known as the _____ school

Answer: Positivist school

FBQ20: For Jeremy Bentham, a critical understanding of law requires that investigations are carried into _____ areas of law.

Answer: eight

FBQ21: The argument that law is not just an abstract set of rules but an integral part of society is espoused by the _____ school of jurisprudence.

Answer: historical

FBQ22: _____ is the founding father of the historical school of jurisprudence.

Answer: Frederich Savigny

FBQ23: The argument that law is not unique but only one method of social control among others is linked to _____ school of jurisprudence

Answer: Sociological

FBQ24: The most dominant figure in the grafting of the sociological school is the American legal philosopher and law teacher called _____

Answer: Roscoe Pound

FBQ25: The notion of what is right or wrong is called -----

Answer: Morality

FBQ26: Dishonesty, living in sin, etc, are examples of _____

Answer: Immorality

FBQ27: The force that is associated with law is characterized by legitimacy and _____

Answer: Authority

FBQ28: The idea that the state or the government is a product of an agreement between the governor and the governed best describes _____ contract idea.

Answer: Social

FBQ29: The element of force is absent in _____ law

Answer: International

FBQ30: The requirements that one must hear the other side in a dispute and must not be a judge in his own case are fundamental principles in _____ justice
Answer: natural

FBQ31: The ability to what one wishes to do without restraint is called _____
Answer: freedom

FBQ32: _____ freedom is liberty to what one wants to do within the limits of the law imposed by law.
Answer: Legal

FBQ33: If everyone is allowed to do anything in the name of freedom, society may degenerate into the _____ state of nature where everyone is at war with everyone.
Answer: Hobessian

FBQ34: The assertion, "your right to swing your fist ends where my nose begins" was made by the English law Lord _____
Answer: Lord Denning

FBQ35: The first and most seminal definition of rule of law was propounded by _____ 1915.
Answer: A.V. Dicey

FBQ36: British colonial rule began in Nigeria in _____
Answer: 1861

FBQ37: In pre-colonial Nigeria, the basic source of law in the Islamic part of the north was the Holy _____ Answer: Koran

FBQ38: The personnel of the Shariah legal system in the north were learned _____ scholars
Answer: Islamic

FBQ39: In 1861, King Dosunmu of Lagos signed a document called the _____ thereby formally ceding Lagos to the British.
Answer: Treaty of Cession

FBQ40: The Northern and Southern Protectorates of Nigeria were amalgamated in _____ into one political unit called Nigeria
Answer: 1914

FBQ41: The major source of law during the colonial period was the _____ English law
Answer: received

FBQ42: The major sources of procedural laws in the colonial era were the _____ for criminal procedure.

Answer: Criminal Procedure Act

FBQ43: The 1960 independence constitution of Nigeria marked the beginning of _____ rule

Answer: self

FBQ44: On the 15th of January _____ the military struck in a coup d'état

Answer: 1966

FBQ45: One of the first casualties of any successful military coup in Nigeria is the _____ which is often suspended.

Answer: constitution

FBQ46: As an academic course of study, the emergence of law is put at _____ century

Answer: Mid-twentieth

FBQ47: The sociology of law is concerned with the nature of law, its sources and _____

Answer: functions

FBQ48: The two dominant views of law in sociology are the consensus /functionalist and _____ perspectives

Answer: Conflict

FBQ49: _____ theories proceed from a fundamental assumption that consensus exists in society

Answer: Consensus

FBQ50: To functionalists, society is a self-contained system made up of interconnected and _____

Answer: Interrelated