

Question: The learning perspective contradict the widely held view that human behaviour is

Answer: (A) instinctive in nature

Question: The first Scholar to bring back the profession of philosophical counselling is

Answer: (A) Achembach

Question: The first stage to test psychological theory is

Answer: (D) problem

Question: The structured questionnaire and the results are subjected to statistical

Answer: (D) analysis

Question: The researcher formulates a possible after the collection of data

Answer: (A) hypothesis

Question: Another term associated with developmental psychology is

Answer: (A) pre natal stage

Question: The scholar who believes that learning is the central process of understanding human behaviour is

Answer: (B) lindgren

Question: The application of psychology in education influences the of learning

Answer: (A) quality and quantity

Question: The suicide prevention organisation is called

Answer: (B) samaritan

Question: Maturation is the scientific concept which proves the period of development in

Answer: (D) germ cell

Question: The concept of psychology emanated from

Answer:Leipzig

Question: The first scholar who published a book on Psychology in 1890 was

Answer:William James

Question: The type of psychology that stresses the way in which children learn and how to help children who are not doing well at school is

Answer:Education

Question: The psychology with people who are mentally ill or who are experiencing behavioural problems is

Answer:Clinical

Question: This is associated with the definition of psychology as the scientific study of human behavior

Answer:Alhassan

Question: This is associated with experiments using animals in order to understand how they respond to their environment

Answer:BF Skinner

Question: viewed psychology as the behaviour and the nature of man and how he relates to his environment

Answer:Orji

Question: The approach which causes behaviour in the functioning of the brain and biochemical processes is

Answer:Biological

Question: The Psychodynamic Approach is associated to the writings of

Answer:Sigmund Freud

Question: Ivan Pavlov and study the behaviour and the environmental conditions that sustain or discourage the behavior

Answer:BF Skinner

Question: Approach associated in reference to the ways in which people think

Answer:Cognitive

Question: The study and observation on how animals and people behave in their normal environments is

Answer:Naturalistic

Question: The use of questionnaires to inquire into the ways a group of people thinks or acts is

Answer: Surveys

Question: The study which looks if two variables are associated or related in some way is

Answer: Correlational

Question: The scholar associated to psychoanalysis perspective is

Answer: Sigmund Freud

Question: Who argued that aggression is a primary instinct in the living species

Answer: Sigmund Freud

Question: The aggression whose aim is to inflict injury on others is

Answer: Hostile

Question: The most influence on individual behaviour is

Answer: family

Question: Psychology as an ancient discipline associated with

Answer: philosophy

Question: Operant conditioning is one of the various methods for controlling

Answer: Behaviour

Question: The Scholar who expressed the idea that an individual is strongly motivated to reach a goal that will be instigated to aggression

Answer:Yates

Question: The scholar Who argued that aggression is a primary instinct in the living species is

Answer:Freud

Question: The negative emotional expressions of behaviour is

Answer:Anger

Question: The positive emotional expressions of behaviour include

Answer:Happiness

Question: The two basic dimensions of emotional expression are and arousal

Answer:pleasantness

Question: The internal state for judging other people which may lead to systematic error is

Answer: affective clues

Question: The goal which manipulate experiments to form a coherent impression of a person is

Answer: impression formation

Question: The factor that influence how we gather information about others is

Answer: Interacting

Question: Our goals and about other people also influence the information that we gather about them

Answer: feeling

Question: The factors such as gender, tribe, religion and class influence are termed category

Answer: social

Question: Another term associated with developmental psychology is

Answer: pre natal stage

Question: The suicide prevention organisation is called

Answer: samaritan

Question: The application of psychology in education influences the of learning

Answer: quality and quantity

Question: The first stage to test psychological theory is

Answer: problem

Question: The learning perspective contradict the widely held view that human behaviour is

Answer: instinctive in nature

Question: The researcher formulates a possible after the collection of data

Answer: hypothesis

Question: The scholar who believes that learning is the central process of understanding human behaviour is

Answer:lindgren

Question: Maturation is the scientific concept which proves the period of development in

Answer:germ cell

Question: The structured questionnaire and the results are subjected to statistical

Answer:analysis

Question: The first Scholar to bring back the profession of philosophical counselling is

Answer:Achembach

Question: Non Verbal Cues is a major source of formation

Answer:Impression

Question: People judges the emotional states of others as in grimace when they feel

Answer:Pain

Question: Identical genetically twins are referred to as

Answer:Monozygotic

Question: Perceiver variability is the main factor of personality

Answer:Impressive

Question: Identical twins resulted from a splitting of the around the time of conception

Answer:Zygote

Question: The act of not seeing the mind but study it through the ways in which it manifests itself is

Answer:Behaviour

Question: The feeling about others is the main process of

Answer:Perception

Question: The writings of was very significant in the development of psychology

Answer:Sigmund Freud

Question: Non identical twins are known as

Answer:Dizygotic

Question: Q1 The mechanism which includes analysis, synthesis, and integration of sensory information is _____.

Answer: Perception

Question: Q2 The branch of psychology that involves mainly the application of psychology to the area of crime and the legal system is _____

Answer: forensic

Question: Q3 A_____ psychologist is someone who specialises in the treatment of those with behavioural problems and mental illness

Answer: clinical

Question: Q4 The domain of the _____ psychology is the examination of the biological bases of behaviour with particular reference to the biochemical reactions underlying memory and learning.

Answer: physiological

Question: Q5 The psychology of _____ deal generally on human behaviour with reference to testimony, evidence, influences, crime, truancy, delinquency, and emotion.

Answer: law

Question: Q6 The developmental task such as crawling, creeping, walking is known as _____ skills

Answer: prehensile

Question: Q7 The Nobel Prize winning ethnologist who proposed that humans, like animals also band together to defend their territory and that this is one of the primary causes of human aggression is

Answer: Konrad Lorenz

Question: Q8 The process concerned with thinking, the processing of information, perception, memory, problem solving, and consciousness is _____

Answer: Cognitive

Question: Q9 The psychology of the psychoanalysis perspective is related to

Answer: Sigmund Freud

Question: Q10 Aristotle talked of learning as an association of ideas following the laws of similarity, contrast, and_____

Answer: Continuity

Question: Q11 To see if two variables are associated or related in some way, psychologists use a statistical technique known as_____.

Answer: correlation

Question: Q12 Psychology is mainly concerned with the ____study of human behavior

Answer: systematic

Question: Q13 Psychology as an ancient discipline was part of_____

Answer: philosophy

Question: Q14 Psychology is the science that studies behaviour and what goes on in the____ that causes behaviour to occur.

Answer: mind

Question: Q15 B.F. Skinner, who carried out many experiments using rats and _____

Answer: pigeons

Question: Q16 People with similar interests, habits, and personalities tend to be_____ to each other

Answer: nbsp; attracted

Question: Q17 The first recognized book on psychology was written by_____

Answer: William James

Question: Q18 The main belief shared by these early pioneers was that human psychological processes could be studied _____

Answer: objectively

Question: Q19 Scientific facts are only understood after _____ learning.

Answer: sustained

Question: Q20 Psychology is vital to the understanding and prediction of ____ behaviour

Answer: Human

Question: Q21 The act of not seeing the mind, but study it through the ways in which it manifests itself is ____

Answer: Behaviour

Question: Q22 Who carried out many experiments using rats, pigeons and other animals in order to understand how they respond to their environment _____

Answer: B.F. Skinner

Question: Q23 Who defined psychology as the scientific study of human behavior _____

Answer: Alhassan

Question: Q24 The type of psychology that deals almost exclusively with people who are mentally ill or who are experiencing behavioural problems is ____

Answer: Clinical

Question: Q25 The type of psychology that stresses the way in which children learn, and how to help children who are not doing well at school is _____

Answer: Education

Question: Q26 The writings of _____ was very significant in the development of psychology

Answer: Sigmund Freud

Question: Q27 The _____ Stereotype is a situation we often find ourselves having only categorical information concerning a person.

Answer: Social

Question: Q28 Non-Verbal Cues is a major source of _____ formation

Answer: Impression

Question: Q29 The two basic dimensions of emotional expressions are _____ and arousal

Answer: Pleasantry

Question: Q30 People judges the emotional states of others as in grimace when they feel _____

Answer: Pain

Question: Q31 nbsp; _____ is a psychological operation that is basic to the determination of terminal human behavior

Answer: Perception

Question: Q32 Fear is the _____ factor of person's perception.

Answer: Negative

Question: Q33 Happiness is the _____ factor of person's perception.

Answer: Positive

Question: Q34 The Reason that influences how another person perceives is _____

Answer: Mood

Question: Q35 Heider argues that all human beings have two strong _____

Answer: Motives

Question: Q36 Perceiver variability is the main factor of _____ personality.

Answer: Impressive

Question: Q37 The feeling about others is the main process of _____

Answer: Perception

Question: Q38 Identical twins are genetically identical and result from a splitting of the _____ around the time of conception.

Answer: Zygote

Question: Q39 Non-identical twins are also known as _____

Answer: Dizygotic

Question: Q40 Identical twins are genetically identical and such twins are referred to as____

Answer: Monozygotic

Question: Q41 Non-identical twins are the result of two different eggs being fertilized by two different _____ around the same point in time.

Answer: Sperms

Question: Q42 Alfred Binet was called the father of _____ testing.

Answer: Intelligence

Question: Q43 The subjective judgment of a person is based on _____

Answer: Perception

Question: Q44 The biological wants of human being is ____needs.

Answer: Physiological

Question: Q45 The genetic factor determines the existence of every _____

Answer: Man

Question: Q46 1. The first five years of individual determined the _____ of the Life.

Answer: Personality

Question: Q47 The use statistical method to pick a representative of a population.

Answer: Sample

Question: Q48 The unstructured questionnaire gives the respondents freedom to reveal their opinions and ____

Answer: Attitudes

Question: Q49 The type of questionnaire that tries to explain items in exhaustive and mutually is ____

Answer: Exclusive

Question: Q50 The educated guesses or answers to the problem is _

Answer: Hypotheses

Question: Q51 The direction of Psychology to family-care programmes and programmes in child guidance and rehabilitation centres is ____

Answer: Community

Question: Q52 Psychology has a great deal to offer in any law enforcement agency - large or small is ____

Answer: Law

Question: Q53 The application of psychology to the area of crime and the legal system is__.

Answer: forensic

Question: Q54 ____ learning refers to a collection of experiences which a person progressively acquires to be regarded as educated in his/her society

Answer: Olaitan

Question: Q55 _____ posts that learning is a central process in understanding human behaviour

Answer: Lindgren

Question: Q56 _____ talked of learning as a association of ideas following the laws of similarity, contrast, and continuity

Answer: Aristotle

Question: Q57 The information which relates to the attitudes, opinions and beliefs of the respondents is the _____ part of the questionnaire.

Answer: analytic

Question: Q58 The processing of information, perception, memory, problem solving, and consciousness is _____

Answer: Cognitive

Question: Q59 _____ The respondents age, sex, social class , and education is the _____ part of the questionnaire

Answer: descriptive

Question: Q60 _____ The study of two variables as associated was a statistical technique devised by

Answer: Francis Galton