

FBQ1: Before lecture method can be used to achieve set objective, the teacher must use adequate _____.

Answer: teaching aids

FBQ2: A piece of carefully organized work undertaken by a pupil/group of pupils with a particular aim is _____.

Answer: project

FBQ3: For a project to be successful, it must not suppress _____.

Answer: initiative

FBQ4: Questioning method serves as _____ motivating device

Answer: extrinsic

FBQ5: Lecture method does not promote _____.

Answer: learning

FBQ6: Lecture method gives a teacher a _____ by relying upon the supposed authority of the dispenser of knowledge

Answer: sense of security

FBQ7: The process by which information passes from teacher to pupil and vice versa during instruction is called _____.

Answer: communication

FBQ8: The level of vocabulary used and the technical nature of the subject must correspond to the _____ of the pupils

Answer: capability

FBQ9: The _____ of a teacher is an important factor in the teaching and learning process especially at the primary level of education

Answer: image

FBQ10: The teacher should have _____ of the method chosen

Answer: good knowledge

FBQ11: Learning can take place _____.

Answer: anywhere

FBQ12: Informal curriculum is also called _____ curriculum

Answer: Hidden

FBQ13: The story telling technique is used mainly for subjects like _____.

Answer: history

FBQ14: _____ teaching is the name for the method used to simplify the problem of teaching large classes with a wide range of abilities

Answer: group

FBQ15: Applying learning experience to social need relates to _____.

Answer: Relevance

FBQ16: _____ developed the Dalton approach to learning.

Answer: Darwin

FBQ17: _____ is not a proponent of the play way method

Answer: Bloom

FBQ18: Games motivate pupils to learn with _____.

Answer: ease

FBQ19: An activity in which people act a situation showing both educational and therapeutic overtones is _____.

Answer: role play

FBQ20: _____ has nothing to do with the discovery method.

Answer: Darwin

FBQ21: Questioning is an instructional tool that will not encourage pupils to _____ in the class?

Answer: make noise

FBQ22: A good question does not attract _____.

Answer: chorus answer

FBQ23: The main figure in an instructional system is the _____.

Answer: pupils

FBQ24: The best approach to adopt in teaching is _____.

Answer: flexibility

FBQ25: It is the duty of the teacher to find out different _____ of teaching suitable for use in any classroom

Answer: methods

FBQ26: Teaching can be regarded as a special form of _____ in imparting knowledge

Answer: procedure

FBQ27: It is very necessary that the teacher varies the _____ to suit every child

Answer: teaching methods

FBQ28: What matters in teaching and learning is _____ as a result of the interaction of pupils with learning experience.

Answer: change in behaviour

FBQ29: The teacher cannot boast of having done effective teaching where there is no _____ in behaviour of the learner

Answer: positive change

FBQ30: The method chosen by the teacher must evoke and maintain the interest of the pupils

Answer: interest

FBQ31: The method must ensure that pupils see purpose in the lesson.

Answer: purpose

FBQ32: The lesson method must pose a problem to the pupils

Answer: problem

FBQ33: The objectives stated in teaching must be achieved.

Answer: achieved

FBQ34: The aim of organisation of learning is to achieve a goal.

Answer: goal

FBQ35: Organizing curriculum on the level of difficulty is vertical.

Answer: vertical

MCQ1: Teaching is a process by which certain conditions are arranged for the pupils consciously to develop the knowledge by experience

Answer: Develop the knowledge

MCQ2: Teaching is an activity in which the teacher, pupils and materials in close contact with one another for the purpose of learning

Answer: Learning

MCQ3: The teacher has great responsibility in organizing learning experiences in a logical manner that will facilitate learning

Answer: Facilitate learning

MCQ4: A good teacher must be able to communicate with learners

Answer: Communicate with learners

MCQ5: A good primary school teacher impacts knowledge, creates, builds and facilitates learning in a friendly and cheerful manner.

Answer: Primary school

MCQ6: Good qualities of the teacher determine children perception and the way they learn

Answer: Perception, Learn

MCQ7: Teaching involves adequate planning

Answer: Planning

MCQ8: The teacher must recognize all but one of these in the learners parent status.

Answer: The parent status

MCQ9: The materials or experiences presented must be meaningful before the child can learn.

Answer: Meaningful

MCQ10: When a teacher assesses the pupils to know whether the specific objective have been achieved or not, it is evaluation.

Answer: Evaluation

MCQ11: One of these is broader in content curriculum.

Answer: Curriculum

MCQ12: Learning objectives well stated is a form of formal curriculum.

Answer: Formal

MCQ13: Curriculum should be a product of the school and society.

Answer: Society

MCQ14: Curriculum is the heart of the school.

Answer: Curriculum

MCQ15: Skill Acquisition was not the focus of the pre-colonial curriculum.

Answer: Skill Acquisition

MCQ16: The Phelps StokesTM Commission was set up in 1920.

Answer: 1920

MCQ17: Molding is not a component of the 3R.

Answer: Molding

MCQ18: Cognitive domain was mainly emphasised in pre-colonial curriculum.

Answer: Cognitive

MCQ19: Each level of education has different goals.

Answer: Goals

MCQ20: That curriculum is an on-going process means that is not rigid.

Answer: Rigid

MCQ21: USA experts were earlier assigned with the development of the Nigerian curriculum.

Answer: USA experts

MCQ22: The National curriculum concept was held in 1969.

Answer: 1969

MCQ23: The study of the history of curriculum is important for change.

Answer: Change

MCQ24: The factors influencing curriculum development does not include
Answer: Fund

MCQ25: Diversified regions in the nation tend to education.
Answer: Politicize

MCQ26: Curricula emphasis on liberal education is responsible for Answer: Unemployment

MCQ27: The poor implementation of our curriculum programmes is because of Answer: Bureaucracy

MCQ28: The National Policy on Education was established in Answer: 1976

MCQ29: In Tyler's Model, evaluation represents the Answer: Last

MCQ30: must be stated in a measurable way.
Answer: Objective

MCQ31: method should be sparingly used in the primary school.
Answer: Lecture

MCQ32: The teacher should use at least methods to maximize learning.
Answer: 2

MCQ33: The particular outcome of learning is called
Answer: Objective

MCQ34: In lecture method, dominates teaching.
Answer: Teacher

MCQ35: The teacher needs to acquire all these skills but one in discussion method
Answer: Problem solving skills