

NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY OF NIGERIA
PLOT 91, CADASTRAL ZONE, NNAMDI AZIKIWE EXPRESS WAY, JABI – ABUJA
FACULTY OF MANAGEMENT SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
2020_1 EXAMINATION

COURSE CODE: MPA853

CREDIT UNIT: 2

COURSE TITLE: INTERNATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

TIME ALLOWED: 2HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1. Attempt Question One (1) and any other two (2) questions
 - 2. Question 1 carries 30 marks, while the other questions carry 20 marks each.
 - 3. Present all points in coherent and orderly manner
-

1. Identify and fully discuss the complexities facing international administration in the international environment especially with regards to North-South relationship. 30marks
2. Describe the structure of both the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and International Labour Organisation (ILO), as well as the strategies these two international non-governmental organisations adopt in their administration. 20marks
3. Write short notes on the following: 20marks
 - a. The International Legal System
 - b. The Growth of International Law
 - c. The Primitive Nature of International Law
 - d. Fundamentals of International Law and Morality
4. Many scholars have argued that colonialism is responsible and central in the explanation of the socio-economic and political conditions of the South. Discuss with concrete examples. 20marks
5. Analyse both the composition of the security council of the United Nations Organisations (UNO) as well as the “powers of veto” the big five members have arrogated to themselves. 20marks