

DEPARTMENT OF JURISPRUDENCE AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

2021_2 EXAMINATION QUESTIONS

COURSE TITLE: OIL AND GAS LAW 1

COURSE CODE: PUL411 (3 UNITS)

TIME ALLOWED: 3 HOURS

QUESTION NO. ANSWER FOUR QUESTIONS IN ALL

QUESTION ONE IS COMPULSORY

1. The United Nations and the international community have recognised the need for preservation of natural resources and the rights of nations over them. In what ways have the United Nations responded to utilization of natural resources?
2. The issue of revenue allocation is at the basis of the existence of the Nigerian nation. The country has witnessed major crisis by the problems relating to revenue allocation, due to the fact that petroleum is the main stay of the economy. It is exported daily from the shores of the nation.
3. R. Kemper a great historian in International law said as the history of struggle between private foreign investment and the interests of the capital exporting countries on the one hand and the interests of the capital-importing countries and their economic and development goals on the other side creates controversy". Explain briefly.
4. The landmark resolution of the United Nations identified as the most important resolution passed during the period of 1962 with regards to permanent sovereignty over natural resources was most welcome document. Briefly State the contents of the declaration.

5. Professor, Muntaku Gujarat is the Chief Executive officer of Ketiki Petroleum Company Ltd. The company wishes to construct oil pipeline to carry crude oil from its oil field to the refinery. Advise Muntaku Gujarat and the company on how to get this done under the law in Nigeria.

6. It is safe to say that the term petroleum includes crude oil and natural gas, while each of oil and gas have similar qualities but are not the same in many of their components. Is this the position? Discuss.