

particular respondents is known as -----
Socio-economic data

[AEM501] A statement which stipulates a relationship or difference between variables is -----

An alternative hypothesis

[AEM501] Through the process of research, man is able to increase his or her -----
-

Knowledge

[AEM501] Social research is carried out with the aim of ----- Improving the standard of living of the people

[AEM501] Studies or research that involves observation of behaviour in natural setting is ----- studies
Ethnographic

[AEM501] Research that has to do with the better understanding of societies is a -----
--- study
Survey

[AEM501] As far as research is concerned, identify how many types of errors that are possible to occur
2

[AEM501] There are generally ----- types of data that are collected in social research
5

[AEM501] A statement which stipulates a no or none relationship or no difference between variables is -----
Null hypothesis

[AEM501] Providing solutions to problems would involve collection, analysis and interpretation of -----
Data

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net