

Henri Fayol

[AEM507] The Extension administrator performs the following strategic task except developing staff motivational theories

[AEM507] Management is a part of Administration
True

[AEM507] The two branches of the Classical School of Administration are scientific management and classical organization theory

[AEM507] Organisational communication is a process whereby _____ are transmitted from one member of the organization to another through agreed channels decisions

[AEM507] The following are essential tasks of the Extension administrator
all of the options

[AEM507] The word "leader" is not synonymous with the term administrator
True

[AEM507] Extension administration is the art of directing, guiding and controlling human and material resources in an extension system

[AEM507] In an extension administrative structure, each staff should not directly report to only one leader false

[AEM507] The situation when special attention is given to employees by management, and productivity increase regardless of actual changes in working conditions is called Hawthorne effect

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net