

determining the job to be done?
Organizing

[AEM509] All economic activities that involve the distribution and or transformation of the raw materials that are from agricultural sector is referred to as agribusiness

[AEM509] Agribusiness activities consists of the following except burrowing

[AEM509] In agribusiness concerns all resources that serve as building units that are required to service a transformation process in order to achieve one or more products is called input sector

[AEM509] Farmers reduce their utilization of the more expensive inputs when inputs prices increase and farm income remains relatively stable

[AEM509] Agribusiness manager take the following decisions except what consumers will buy

[AEM509] A good manager must possess the following characteristics except should be afraid of taking risk

[AEM509] Planning function in agribusiness entails identifying alternative courses of action and analyzing each alternative

[AEM509] Planning, Organizing, Directing and Coordinating are examples of management functions

[AEM509] Which of the following factor does not seriously affect the management process of agribusiness?
Psychological factor

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net