

little economic say in the village and in the bigger economy
Youth

[AEM732] Extension initiatives help rural women to improve their _____ Standard of living

[AEM732] Cooperatives associations formed to most specific needs of members are called _____ Service cooperatives

[AEM732] Extension is built on the bedrock of _____ Communication

[AEM732] Absence of full benefits of rural youth labours is due to lack of _____ Ownership of farm lands

[AEM732] The most crucial challenge faced by rural women in extension is _____ Marriage

[AEM732] The mass movement of rural youth to urban areas is due to lack of _____ Gainful employment

[AEM732] A vehicle for overcoming rural poverty is the transformation of _____ Agriculture

[AEM732] Improved telecommunication and enhanced information dissemination are products of _____ Globalization

[AEM732] During training in extension, which of the mediums is the best for farmers understanding _____
The use of audio visual aids

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net