

effectively link them up with their urban counterparts is referred to as Integrated Rural Development Model

[AEM738] Which of these involves the transformation of the rural community into a socially, economically and politically orderly and materially desirable condition, with the purpose of improving the quality of life of the rural people?
Rural development

[AEM738] Good analysis requires a thorough consideration of all aspects of the project

[AEM738] Which of these is not the sources of social capital?
Bond wage

[AEM738] Which of these are the building blocks of investment?
Projects implementation and evaluation

[AEM738] The scheme of activities for investing resources which can be reasonably analyzed and evaluated as an independent unit is known as Project

[AEM738] Which of these is not one of the six major components of rural development for the rural dwellers as stated by the Directorate of Foods, Roads and Rural Infrastructure (DFRRI) in 1991.
Natural Resources Quality

[AEM738] Rural areas are characterized by the following except:
adequate social amenities

[AEM738] The following are the components of technical analysis in agriculture except:
Nutrients

[AEM738] Which of these models are of the view that development of the agricultural sector approximates rural development, particularly in most developing nations?
Sectoral Development Model

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net