

Arabic Novel

[ARA313] The word "fiction" derives from the Latin word

[ARA313] the term _____ has commonly been recognized and used to mean a novel or sometimes an acted story
riwayah

[ARA313] The Arabic word for novel is ar-Riwayah

[ARA313] One major source of fictive tales and legends is the collected narratives of _____ Wahab bin al Munabbah

[ARA313] Arabic stories of historical romance were called riwayaat, such as Uṣūl al-Fihrist

[ARA313] The _____ is a narrative work that is concise and to the point
Short Story

[ARA313] ar-Riwayah. It is a derivative of the trilateral root verb _____ rawa

[ARA313] the term novel is an abbreviation of the Italian word

[ARA313] The register of the Arabs is al-Fuṣṣaḥ

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net