

securities.
Property

[BFN203] The term _____ may refer to the expected profit in investment.
Arbitrage

[BFN203] The _____ is an investment position intended for offsetting potential losses or gains.
Hedge

[BFN203] _____ involves engaging in risky financial transactions towards earning profit from short term price fluctuations.
Speculation

[BFN203] _____ involves the practice of taking advantage of a price difference between two or more financial markets.
Arbitrage

[BFN203] _____ derivatives refer to contracts involving exchange of cash (flows) on or before a specified future date.
Swap

[BFN203] Futures are _____ in which contracts to buy or sell a specified asset on a future date at a specified price today
Derivatives

[BFN203] _____ is a contract that originates its value from the performance of an underlying entity
Derivative

[BFN203] _____ can be used to mitigate risk in the underlying asset in investment.
Speculation

[BFN203] Investment in crude oil is an example of a _____ investment.
Commodity

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net