

resources in the pursuit of organisational goals is called management

[EDA813] which of the following is not one of the qualities of school plant development?
Porosity

[EDA813] Provision of adequate spaces to facilitate and support teaching and learning activities is referred to as Spatial adequacy

[EDA813] The types and sizes of learning spaces provided in the school plant depend on the size of the school enrolment

[EDA813] One of the causes of the rapid deterioration of the school buildings is Lack of regular maintenance services

[EDA813] Furniture consists of the following items, except tables, , seats and are referred to as computers

[EDA813] school plant operation includes the following, except teaching

[EDA813] The piece of land or plot of ground on which a school plant is built or is to be built School site

[EDA813] Education can either be effective or a barrier by the school plant.
It's true

[EDA813] The process of getting written quotations for work or service based on documents which will form part of a contract with a successful bidder is called Tendering