

fraudulent compilation of data

[EDA844] The first step to take in carrying out research for the purpose of educational management is to do one of the following:

Plan the study

[EDA844] Which of the following is most correct about the function of statistics in educational planning and administration?

It helps to draw inferences for policy making

[EDA844] A state is interested in increasing the number of primary schools in the state. What type of data will the state need to ensure even distribution of primary schools across the state?

The population of primary school going age in each local government, number of primary schools required in each local government, Existing number of primary schools, number of additional primary schools required in each local government, and available fund

[EDA844] Which of the following best explained forecasting in educational management?

Prediction

[EDA844] Which of the following is most correct as a means of improving data generation?

creating a central office for data analysis

[EDA844] What does an educational planner need to succeed in planning?

Reliable information

[EDA844] Which of the following best explained projection in educational management?

To draw estimate of the future

[EDA844] Quantitative analysis will help the education manager to do the following except one.

Schedules and analysis of public options

[EDA844] One most correct way through which quality assurance can be ascertained in educational programmes is to do one of the followings:

regular evaluation

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net