

S-R connections

[EDU321] In Thorndikes's view learning is the process of forming associations or bonds

[EDU321] The experiment carried out by Bandura to investigate if aggressive behaviours can be acquired by observation is known as Bobo Doll experiment

[EDU321] In a fixed ratio reinforcement schedule A behaviour is reinforced after a set number of responses have occurred

[EDU321] The basic needs that must be satisfied for survival are known as deficiency needs

[EDU321] For conditioning to take place, there must be repeated pairing of the UCS and CS

[EDU321] In observational learning, those performing the behaviour and are being observed are called models

[EDU321] Bruner believes that every learner is born with three basic needs which when aroused and satisfied enhance motivated behaviour

[EDU321] The intentional application of Skinnerian principles in an effort to alter human behaviour is called Behaviour modification

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net