

Borno

[ISL451] Each Tarīqah was handed down through a continuous chain known as silsilah

[ISL451] Each Tarīqah was handed down through a continuous chain known as manzilah

[ISL451] Each Tarīqah was handed down through a continuous chain known as manzilah

[ISL451] The person that was responsible for the spread of Qādirīyah in West Africa is ʿAbd al-Karīm al-Maghāli

[ISL451] ʿAbd al-Qādir Jilānī was born in the township of Naif in the Persian district of Jilān

[ISL451] While the Qādirīyah is attributed to ʿAbd al-Qādir al-Jilānī, the Shādhiliyyah is attributed to Abu Madyan Shuayb

[ISL451] While the Qādirīyah is attributed to ʿAbd al-Qādir al-Jilānī, the Shādhiliyyah is attributed to Abu Madyan Shuayb

[ISL451] A famous Qadiri saint, popularly known as Ahmad Bamba was from Senegal

[ISL451] The most prominent Qādirīyah personality of the late 15th century West Africa was Ahmad al-Bakka' al-Kuntā

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net