

needs____
9

[NSC111] The organ that is much involved in the thermoregulation of the body is____ Hypothalamus

[NSC111] The two key components of health promotion strategies employed by the nurse include____
Motivation/counselling

[NSC111] Who defined health as a creative process____
Dubo

[NSC111] Huitt (2004) identified a common trait in all theories of need as____ Bounding/relatedness

[NSC111] This group of needs is concerned with providing the basic requirements for material existence
Existence

[NSC111] Inner peace and security briefly defines____ Spiritual health

[NSC111] The following transmitter substances affect BMR except____ Calcitonine

[NSC111] The first proposed process of Watinson health promotion strategies for nurses is____ Needs identification

[NSC111] In active situation the following deep organs are involves in heat production except____ Kidney

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net