

foundational and abstract

[PHL101] What definition of philosophy seeks to describe the functions, goals and reasons for the existence of philosophy?
descriptive

[PHL101] The claim that the role of philosophy is to change the world was made by Karl Marx

[PHL101] What approach of philosophy deals with the study of historical figures who are considered as philosophers? anthropological

[PHL101] Who among the contemporary philosophers rejected Locke's idea that language is learned empirically?
Noam Chomsky

[PHL101] Which of the following modern standards of philosophising was adopted by those who perceive philosophy as language analysis?
scientific verification

[PHL101] The system of philosophy that explains everything from the point of a great idea like mind or spirit is called metaphysical

[PHL101] Philosophy is a term that can be applied to all areas of life

[PHL101] What would you consider to be the background of students that frequently expect concise, clear and universally acceptable definitions of philosophy?
scientific

[PHL101] Who asserted that man does not possess innate ideas at birth, hence, he must gain his knowledge through experience?
John Locke

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net