

politics.
None of the above

[POL121] Which of the following colonial ideologies was meant to soften the minds of Africans to accept the superior legitimacy of foreign rule?
Civilizing Mission

[POL121] According to W.E Abraham, "African _____" refers to the process in Traditional African politics by which various opinions are arrived at after long and patient discussions.
Palaver

[POL121] Who among the following African Political figures was the leader of National Council of Nigeria and Cameroon?
Herbert Macaulay

[POL121] Describing Africa as backward and without a glorious past was the white man's way to justify _____ Colonialism

[POL121] In 1948 at Abeokuta the king was deposed from his throne by the colonial Lords because he protested against _____ Taxation

[POL121] _____ connotes wide acceptability of the government in power by the entire citizens.
Legitimacy

[POL121] It is difficult to discuss African politics without mentioning its _____ experience
Colonial

[POL121] A major feature of Traditional African politics was _____.
Decentralization of governance

[POL121] The desire and consistent refusal of rulers and leader in Africa to leave office at the end of their tenure is referred to as _____ syndrome.
Sit-tight

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net