

levels that do not cause cultural disruption.
mass

[TSM221] Ecotourism encourages people to value _____.
own cultural heritage

[TSM221] For most goods and services, _____ are established in the marketplace, through the process of buying and selling.
expenditure

[TSM221] One of the major benefits of ecotourism is the _____ impact on the people of the local community.
economic

[TSM221] _____ management systems that regulate resource use are highly susceptible to external influences.
Traditional

[TSM221] Ecotourism thrives on _____.
sustainability

[TSM221] Many _____ countries rely directly on their natural resource base for a substantial portion of domestic employment and national income. developing

[TSM221] _____ sites are regarded as irreplaceable resources.
Cultural

[TSM221] The expected benefits from the conversion and development of natural areas can usually be expressed in _____ terms.
monetary

[TSM221] The fundamental requirement of community based _____ requires that the quality of natural resources and cultural heritage of an area is not damaged, but enhanced by tourism activities.
ecotourism

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net