

fattening and increase in muscle

[ANP303] Digestive tract, liver, pancreas, lungs and bladder are formed before birth

[ANP303] In animal production-----is perhaps the most significant factor growth

[ANP303] The most important tissues of interest in animal production are ----- muscle and fat

[ANP303] Growth before birth is referred to as----- prenatal

[ANP303] Evaluation of the live animal is called ----- judging

[ANP303] The postnatal growth of all animals follows a ----- pattern when weight is plotted on a graph against time. sigmoid curve

[ANP303] An enlargement of cells is known as hypertrophy

[ANP303] One of the options is a type of muscle found in animals cardiac

[ANP303] Birth weight may be an ----- of how well the prenatal growth period has been indicator

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net