

coincidence of want

[BFN302] Money whose intrinsic worth is less than its normal or face value.
token money

[BFN302] To maintain the value of money, It has to be relatively scarce

[BFN302] In $M = C + D$, D stands for Demand Deposit

[BFN302] In $M = C + D$, M stands for Money Supply

[BFN302] In $M = C + D$, C stands for Currency in circulation

[BFN302] Money of other countries not used locally by other countries but in foreign dealings is foreign money

[BFN302] The Demand for Money is a function of the all of the above

[BFN302] The Fisher's quantity theory of money was propounded in 1911

[BFN302] The urge to hold money is its demand

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net