

pangensis?

The theory of independent assortment

[BIO201] What is the chromosome number of Parascaris equarum?

$2n=2$

[BIO201] A tetraploid cell will have how many sets of chromosomes?

4

[BIO201] Who coined the term genetics?

Bateson

[BIO201] According to Charles Darwin, exact miniature replicas of the body parts and organs are carried in the blood stream, and to be assembled in the gametes. This is called

Gemmules

[BIO201] A theory that postulate that adult structures in plants and animals arise from embryonic tissues, which do not resemble the corresponding adult structures is known as epigenetics

[BIO201] The components of the nucleus that are visibly distributed during cell division are the chromosomes

[BIO201] The general terms used to describe the number of whole sets of chromosomes is

Ploidy

[BIO201] The sea urchin embryo can be divided into----- quadrants

four

[BIO201] At telophase, the chromosomes _____ form two daughter cells that latter separate

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net