

2

[BIO410] _____ is the type of fins in fish that help to balance and allow fish to steer slowly via the water.

Paired fin

[BIO410] _____ is the type of unpaired fin that occurs below the lateral line on the lower surface of the trunk ?

Anal fin

[BIO410] _____ opening situated at the rear end on the underside trunk of fish structure.

Cloacae

[BIO410] _____ is the fish body that help to reduce the resistance of the fish's movement via water.

Skin

[BIO410] The largest part of the fish body is called _____.

Trunk

[BIO410] _____ is the part of the fish which fish scales are attached to.

Skin

[BIO410] How many eyes does a typical structure of the fish have _____ .

2

[BIO410] _____ is the part of fish used to extract oxygen from the water.

Gills

[BIO410] _____ and _____ are two types of fin in the fish body.

Paired/Unpaired

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net