

1. Traditional view of State security opines that every State has the responsibility to prevent its citizens from external aggression using force or deterrence, where it deemed necessary. The traditional boundary of security studies focuses almost exclusively on the State as the main instrumental of defence.

Military force

2. With the emergence of the world imperial economy in the 17th century, and political transformation it witnessed at home as a result of the Victorious Revolution, all was set for the modernization of British civilization and the colonization of Africa.

Britain

3. Colonialism as a political system is never a benevolent exercise. It was designed both for the purposes akin to the spread of European imperial capitalism.

Political and Economic

4. Nigeria Nationalist struggles began in Lagos with the Nigerian Youth Movement

Youth Movement

5. Constructivism is a theoretical paradigm in the social sciences, which believes that, actions, meanings, symbols, interests, conditions and interpretations that actors give to situations matter a lot in the objective understanding of our world.

Constructivism

6. Modernization is now one of the major distinctions and characteristics of modern society.

Strategic management

7. Risk management is the process of designing comprehensive programme of action to prevent, monitor, deter and control the possibility of a potential threat, risk or reduce the vulnerability of an organization or a State to a threat.

Risk management

8. Mediation conceptually means the strategic intervention of a third party in management of crime situation or resolution of a conflict.

Third party

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net

Join group: T.me/NOUNSTUDENTSFORUM
CLICK TO DOWNLOAD MORE TMA PQ

components of discourses on war and defence in today's international politics.

Deterrence and brinkmanship

10. The $\hat{\epsilon}$ Security Council is the highest security ruling body in the world.

United Nations

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net