

CRD122

Question: is a physical function which ensures that goods are available as at when desired Answer: transportation

Question: is the process of credit establishing and maintaining a uniform measurement of a commodity in terms of quality Answer: Standardization

Question: Population density in labour surplus areas is about person/sq.km Answer: 1000

Question: The extent of marketing functions performed on a particular commodity therefore determines the marketing , marketing margin, the unit cost of good and the profit Answer: cost

Question: Commercial agriculture requires area of farmland Answer: large

Question: It provides the to the final consumer of the product utility Answer: place

Question: function enables the seller and consumer to have a fair price and cost for good sold and bought respectively
Answer: buying

Question: relates to the production and management of fish and their products Answer: fisheries

Question: is a marketing function which ensures that goods are available as at when (desired) Answer: storage

Question: precedes storage
Answer: preservation

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net