

_____ agents act as intermediaries between the farmer and buyer of the produce commissioned _____ agents perform the marketing function of transportation, storage and sometime processing before selling to wholesaler, retailer or consumer non-commissioned

Extension officers transmit research findings from research institutes or universities to farmers

_____ strategy seeks to transform the economic, social and political relationships which exist in rural areas structural

Natural resources may also be classified as _____ categories four (4)

_____ agents perform the facilitating functions of marketing commissioned

The average monthly _____ in Nigeria varies between 210C and 350C temperature

In industrial economy, agricultural _____ occurs when there is adequate supply of raw materials to local agricultural industries.
development

_____ perform the function of collecting, grading, storing, delivery and financing, in marketing of the commodity wholesalers

_____ middlemen undertake the transportation of the produce from the farm to market places for sale to wholesalers or retailers farmgate