

person and a divine person.
Nestorianism

[CRS826] _____ is synonymous to salvation.
Soteriology

[CRS826] _____ theology places distinctive emphasis on grace by teaching that individuals are completely incapable of self-redemption
Reformed

[CRS826] _____ is efficacious signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to the Church.
Sacrament

[CRS826] Ajewole identifies six kinds of leadership among which are all except Episcopal

[CRS826] The first appearance of ecclesiology in print was in the quarterly journal known as _____
The British Critic

[CRS826] The roots of the word ecclesiology come from the _____ ecclesia.
Latin

[CRS826] _____ saw as non-biblical the baptism of infants.
Lutherans

[CRS826] _____ places much emphasis on liturgy and above all the Eucharist.
High Church Ecclesiology

[CRS826] Today, some Christians, particularly Quakers and _____ do not see baptism as necessary, and do not practice the rite.
the Salvation Army