

The father of modern criminology is known as

Cesaro Lombroso

Which of these is not a type of crime

None of the above

According to the Rome Statute, attacks on human dignity or grave degradation or humiliation of one or more persons is referred to as

Crime against humanity

Alcohol and substance abuse are often associated with criminal behavior

TRUE

The study of the nature and expression of crime is termed

Criminology

_____ found unemployment to be a critical factor when it came to property crime

Glaser and Rice (1959)

The International Criminal Court was established in the Hague in the year

2002

One of the listed is not a reason for crime prevalence

None of the above

Crimes committed by persons in their legitimate jobs and profession is regarded as

White-Collar crime

The first known written codes were produced by the

Sumerians