

inflicted upon the poor, not the rich deterrence

[CSS411] Retribution as a philosophy of imprisonment implies ____ vengeance

[CSS411] Who developed differential opportunity theory?
Richard Cloward and Lloyd Ohlin

[CSS411] The term 'mores' as a type of norm which is an informal social control agent/agency is pronounced ____ MO-Rays

[CSS411] ____ is 'a systematic set of principles that explains how two or more phenomena are related'.
Theory

[CSS411] The theory of delinquent subcultures was developed in ____ Albert Cohen

[CSS411] Which of these theories of crime emerged as a result of combination of strain, differential association and social disorganisation theories?
differential opportunity theory

[CSS411] According to Summer, when ____ are developed into doctrines of welfare, they become mores.
folkways

[CSS411] The ____ was an important means of preserving the social system and its hierarchy.
criminal law

[CSS411] Who among these scholars was a biogenic criminologist?
All of the above

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net