

1. Most emergency situations fall under two broad categories

Natural and Artificial Emergencies

2. ...is the result of groups or individuals within the population feeling, rightly or wrongly, that their needs or rights are not being met

Civil unrest

3. According to Johnson, (2000) ...is ...a type of social behaviour that occurs in crowds and masses

Collective behaviour

4. Studies by scholars show that ...countries seem to top the list in Artificial disasters

African

5. To a layman the word ...means sudden crisis requiring action

emergency

6. The consequences of disaster cut across the following except

Motive

7. Civil disturbance can, in extreme cases, cause the following except

Productivity

8. Common natural causes of disasters include

Dry farming

9. Collective behaviour includes all of these except

Social distance

10. Disasters connote ...event leading to suffering and destruction

negative