

discourage people from engaging in acts considered to be criminal.
deterrence

[CSS743] Social Democratic Positivism is a theory, that blames incidence of crime and acts of criminality on (social)Ã¢â¬!.....
injustice

[CSS743] However, peopleÃ¢â¬!.....to the norms and rules (laws) of their societies based on how they see justice in the distribution of wealth, such that no section of the society(ies) is deprived economically.
conform

[CSS743] Sanctions and punishment have appeared to beÃ¢â¬!.....in the control of crime in most societies.
ineffective

[CSS743] According to the realist theory, the best way to control crime is to examine theÃ¢â¬!.....of the crime, the conditions that produce such crimes as well as the impact of the crimes
nature

[CSS743] TheÃ¢â¬!.....theory was popularized by Paul and Patricia Brantingham in the 1980s.
environmentalist

[CSS743] The effective way to control crime in any society is to ensure that the control measures which are being provided canÃ¢â¬!.....to the nature of crime.
respond effectively

[CSS743] Laws are made toÃ¢â¬!.....some acts, which are considered to be criminal.
outlaw

[CSS743] The main source of crime, according to social democratic postivism theory, is unjust and unfair distribution ofÃ¢â¬!.....in the society.
wealth

[CSS743] The Marxist theory further holds thatÃ¢â¬!.....contradictions have forced majority (proletariat) into structural relegation.
capitalist

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net