

1. International security. may address varieties of security issues; military security, human security, human rights, political freedom, economic security, nuclear programmes, health and safety of young people.

International security protocol

2. Conflicts can also be described in terms of relationship between the oppressed and the oppressor...

Oppressor

3. Neo-realism is the field of security studies which believes that the State lies in both the capacity of the State as a Sovereign entity to acquire power and influence through its military strengths.

State Security

4. Deterrence.. is simply the act of discouraging an adversary or an enemy from taking an action which may result to war.

Deterrence

5. The modern State emerged as a political entity created first for the maintenance of social order and provide appropriate governance the attainment of peace in the face of confrontations and wars.

Political entity

6. War is increasingly being viewed as a legitimate use of force by two States or quasi-State actors to make a demand for a political or economic change using excessive force dominated by military men and recognized by some authorities as a path to peace.

War

7. Police legitimacy is the perception that the police have the rights to rule.

Police

8. Refugees.. are arrangements made by government, nongovernment organizations or the international community to cushion the effects of war on persons by providing them shelter, food, security, and clean environment where they can enjoy their fundamental rights to a decent living as enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948, and other UN Conventions.

Join group: T.me/NOUNSTUDENTSFORUM
CLICK TO DOWNLOAD MORE TMA PQ

9. Security refers to a set of security strategies designed to ensure that a nation's economy is secured from internal and external vulnerabilities.

Economic security

10. The International Community has come a long way and remains a formidable force in the management of global conflicts.

Global conflicts.

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net