

citizenry (Mbaku, 2003) is called.....
A State

[CSS877] The deployment of security infrastructure and surveillance cameras to the border posts of a country with a view to interdicting illegal acts is called,.....
.....
Border Security

[CSS877]is a set of international laws, conventions and strategies developed to strengthen international cooperation against collective security threats.
International Protocol

[CSS877] The statement, "power corrupts, absolute power corrupts absolutely" is credited to
Davis Easton

[CSS877] The conception of the State in terms of an objective and impartial entity that will use its monopoly of coercion to police and guide society, is known as Libertarian

[CSS877] A set of security strategies designed to ensure that a nation's economy is secured from internal and external vulnerabilities, is called.....
Economic security

[CSS877] According to Carneiro (1970), villages began to aggregate into larger political units aroundBC.
5,000BC

[CSS877] The overall security arrangements put in place by the government to maintain the territorial integrity of the State, is called.....
Human Security

[CSS877] The "hydraulic hypothesis" is credited to Karl Wittfogel

[CSS877]refers to "safety from chronic threats as hunger, disease and repression as well as sudden and hurtful disruptions in the patterns of daily life (UNDP, 1994 p. 23).
Human Security

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net