

CLICK TO DOWNLOAD MORE TMA PQ

principles and concerted efforts that help a society transmute from a simple and traditional society to a very organized and complex society Modernization

[DES309] _____ refers to the physical or tangible facilities or systems necessary for the functioning of a society
hard infrastructure

[DES309] Good governance must be _____ participatory and effective

[DES309] As rightly noted by Rawlinson (2004) and Hawkins (1985), social development eliminates the strains and motives for _____ deviant behaviour

[DES309] The _____ approach to social development is largely based on the primacy of the market in social welfare planning enterprise

[DES309] The Populist approach to Social development emphasizes the involvement of _____ the people

[DES309] In the stage of _____ there is industrial diversification and the country is now producing a wide range of goods and services, while reliance
Drive to Maturity

[DES309] The third stage of development in W.W Rostow's theory is _____ Take-off

[DES309] _____ iargued that _____ politics is a distinctive form of rule whereby people act together through institutionalized procedures to resolve differences, to conciliate diverse interests and to make public policies in the pursuit of common purposes
Bernard Crick

[DES309] _____ argue that the problem of underdevelopment is essentially exogenous and is connected to contact with advanced economies Dependency theories

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net