

uncertainty, when numerical data are involved, we refer to ---- discipline

[ECO154] ----- is an investigation carried out to collect statistical data which perhaps analysed and presented to aid effective decision making, statistical enquiry

[ECO154] ----- is particularly used to describe a collection of numerical data
statistics

[ECO154] ----- is the aspect of decision-making that has to do with numerical information.
statistics

[ECO154] From a set of observation, mean = N279.76, median = N279.06, mode = N277.50 and standard deviation = s = N15.60. Find second co-efficient of skewness.
0.1346 of 0.14

[ECO154] Statistics could mean the following except ----- a department

[ECO154] The science of collecting, organising, analysing, and summarising information is known as -----
statistics

[ECO154] the statistical processes involve the following excepts ----- observing a scenario for possible information gathering

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net