

1. Provision of innovation means _____ someone to initiate the social change that is necessary for a society to survive

2. Innovation bring new way or new ideas therefore challenges _____ what was formally considered to be usual

3. The social function of education is under _____ headings five

4. With the understanding of sociology an individual is blessed with rebuff view about _____ .

other peoples background

5. Religion have the potentiality of instilling moral values through the component in the written liturgies but the transmission is _____ family

6. _____ is ideal culture

Consist of official approved behaviour patters

7. in sociology, education can be explained as an activity which depends on the nature of the _____ .

society

8. For the child, the teachers personality and character provide a mode which he strives to copy , thereby consciously moulding _____

personality

9. Through _____ moral values can be instilled religion

10. _____ transmits non-formal education.

Open society