

expressive

[ENG141] Which of the following factors may not affect the quality of a person's speech?
lack of articulatory problems

[ENG141] An important concept that can affect the quality of one's speech is Glossophobia - a term used to refer to the ----- of public speaking.
fear

[ENG141] When the soft palate is lowered to close the oral cavity so that air stream passes through the nasal cavity the ----- is produced
nasal sound

[ENG141] Usually, sounds combine in a language to form ----- syllables

[ENG141] The vowel sound in the word 'hurt' is a ----- long vowel

[ENG141] Jones (1977), postulates that ----- is the variations which take place in the pitch of the voice in a connected speech.
intonation

[ENG141] The purpose of speech can be to convey meaning or to ----- increase social bonds between individuals and/or groups

[ENG141] The maximal onset principle determines ----- underlying syllable division

[ENG141] A consonant cluster is any string of consonants at the beginning or at the end of a ----- syllable

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net