

entered into imaginative Literature with _____.

Thomas Hobbes's Leviathan which was published in France in 1651

[ENG216] The Bank of England was established in _____.

1694

[ENG216] The Restoration poem, "An Horetian Ode Upon Cromwell's

Return from England in 1650

Oliver Cromwell

[ENG216] One of the characteristic genres of the Romantic Age is _____.

Restoration comedy or Comedy of Manners

[ENG216] The Restoration writers combined _____.

Politics with the Philosophy of man and his society.

[ENG216] Restoration comedy developed _____.

immediately the theatres were reopened in England

[ENG216] The Augustan age is also known as _____.

The Neo-Classical Age

[ENG216] The two strong political parties that emerged in England of the Restoration are the _____.

Whigs and Tories

[ENG216] The English poet in the second half of the 17th Century who wrote the Pilgrims Progress (1678) is _____.

John Bunyan

[ENG216] The Restoration period in the history of England was characterized by years of _____.

conflicts and intrigues