

One of the following types of writing may require a 'cause and effect' approach to the discussion of events.

Descriptive

Topic sentence has to do with one of the following aspects of a paragraph.

Main idea

The term coherence has to do with one of the following aspects of a paragraph.

Layout

One of these narrative techniques puts a distance between the writer and the reader.

3rd person

The passage: 'This morning, I looked at the blue sky, the green leaves and the beautiful red rose. I felt a calmness in my being. Then I looked across the street and saw a beautiful lady in a flowery dress smiling at me. It's going to be a great day', is _____ in nature.

Expository

One of the following options will require an exclamation mark.

Sit down

One of these forms of writing will most likely be written in a story form.

Narrative writing

The sentence: After speaking with his mother, I discovered the matter was a storm in a tea cup, means the matter was _____

Serious

In one of the following sentences, the writer's comment on the idea being expressed is reflected.

In all honesty, Adio is crooked

The sentence: 'Mr Israel told his neighbour that Nduka led him on a wild goose chase,' means that Nduka _____ his time.

Wasted