

mournful

[ENG372] One of these is NOT a character in the Anglo-Saxon epic, Beowulf: ----- Finnsburg

[ENG372] One of these is NOT a metaphysical poet: ----- William Wordsworth

[ENG372] The literal meaning of Renaissance is ----- rebirth

[ENG372] The lines,
The Canterbury Tales

[ENG372] The poem, 'For his Friende', was written by the Elizabethan poet, ---- Humphrey Gifford

[ENG372] The hero in the heroic poem, The Battle of Maldon, is ----- Byrhtnoth

[ENG372] The Battle of Brunanburb and ----- are heroic poems that celebrate aspects of English history
The Battle of Maldon

[ENG372] The lines, 'I love to hear her speak, yet well I know/That music hath a far more pleasing sound' are from a sonnet written by the English poet, -----.
William Shakespeare

[ENG372] My vegetable love should grow/Vaster than Empires, and more slow' are lines from one of Andrew Marvell's poems titled, ----- To His Coy Mistress

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net