

_____ is a kind of social mind-set that is applicable in any kind of business or setting such as profit oriented entrepreneurial setting, a non-profit setting, a public setting, and within other social issues in any kind of organizational structure.

Social entrepreneurship

_____ (2004) defined entrepreneurship as an attitude, a way of thinking and learning
Shaw

_____ separated the capitalistic role from entrepreneurship and argued that entrepreneurs were sociologically distinct individuals who are motivated by atavistic will to achieve power.

Joseph Schumpeter

Entrepreneurship as a term originates from a _____ word
French

The term _____ could be used to perhaps more accurately describe the social entrepreneurial activity that falls within the voluntary sector
civic innovation

At the beginning of the _____ Century Joseph Schumpeter introduced the concept of innovation and power as agents of development.

20th

entreprendre is a _____ word for entrepreneurship
French

_____ (1985) defined entrepreneurship as a process of creating something new with value, by devoting time and attention, assuming the accompanying financial, psychological and social risk and receiving the resulting reward of monetary and personal satisfaction that comes with it.

Hisrich

_____ in the 18th Century separated entrepreneurial activities from those of capitalistic activities and introduced risk taking as a cardinal element in entrepreneurship

Richard Cantillon

In the _____ century, entrepreneurship was seen as capitalist activities.

17th