

is the ____ school of thought.
Monistic

[ESM106] For effective environmental management, a policy was formulated that ____ of total land area should be constituted into forest reserves through Nigeria.
0.25

[ESM106] ____ are of the view that the problems of environmental management in Nigeria are basically buried in the colonial past.
Dualistic

[ESM106] The early, latter and systems phases are characteristic of the ____ school of thought.
Holistic

[ESM106] Crude oil, natural gas, metallic and non-metallic minerals are all examples of ____ resources.
Non-renewable

[ESM106] The third developmental stage in the Classical phase of Environmental Management was between the the years ____ and ____ 1937-1950

[ESM106] Which of these is not one of the first three game reserves approved in Nigeria?
Ibadan Game Reserve

[ESM106] One of these is not a way humans view the environment
Resource sink

[ESM106] Minerals and fossil fuels may not be described as ____ Material

[ESM106] ____ may be classified into proven, probable and possible recoverable.
Reserves