

_____ simply demonstrate that the earth is consistently a changing system.
Earthquake

Each year one or more hurricane strikes the _____ region.
Caribbean

International relief and _____ assistance has been insufficient to compensate countries for their losses.
Rehabilitation

The point on a fault at which the first movement or break occurs during an earthquake is called the earthquake or _____ Hypcenter

Different observers in the same spot may assign different intensity values to a single _____ Earthquake

Environmental hazards may be likened to Environmental resources as both evolve from the earth natural systems
True

Environmental _____ should not ask the question whether these events will happen, but what may occur when they do
Planners

The disasters caused by environmental hazards generate a demand for enormous _____ of capital to replace what is destroyed and damaged.
Amount

Faults come in all sizes, from microscopically small to thousands of kilometres _____
Long

A key element to be addressed in this _____ is the distribution of resources between disaster prevention and post-disaster efforts
Decade