

them will become more acute.
resources

[ESM411] In sub-Saharan Africa, for example, public long-term debt amounted to _____ per cent of the region's GNP in 1986.
58

[ESM411] Developing countries pay an even higher price for neglecting environmental _____ accounting.

[ESM411] _____ and waterlogging result from bad irrigation projects.
Salinization

[ESM411] A good part of the struggle to balance population with available natural resources will be concentrated in the _____ world.
developing

[ESM411] The gross _____ in international trade also contributes to the non-sustainable use of resources.
imbalance

[ESM411] The world total of salinized land is estimated at _____ per cent of all irrigated lands.
22

[ESM411] Many of our technological innovations have contributed to environmental decline and are turning out to be no more than temporary _____.
fixes

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net