

reached its zenith in the Roman Period

[HCM141] Graffiti and message on the walls were symbolic of the fame of Egypt's Monuments

[HCM141] A critical examination of the historical process always highlights news representative within which a particular field of interest can be Viewed

[HCM141] Tourism is concerned with consuming goods and services

[HCM141] Growth of urban centers and later cities along river banks and coastline such centers are known to have been established in all except London

[HCM141] The moment we mention history, the general assumption is that we want to know about the Past

[HCM141] In Europe, a day was set aside, at the end of a week cycle, for religious rituals and a day was called a Holy Day

[HCM141] The assumption being that tourism was most developed in Europe

[HCM141] The main -stream of objective to study of the history of tourism is to understand the phenomenon in a particular society at a Particular time

[HCM141] The percentage time devoted to travel in developed countries is 0.4