

One of the following is not a neonatal infection

Spondylosis Neonatorium

Remainthe baby is usually associated with

Youngest Children

Causes of neonatal diarrhoea include the following except

When babies are kept close to their mothers

The following are domains in child development except

Financial

Environmental influences affecting development of children in school include the following except

Rivalry

A neonate is said to be premature if the birthweight is less or equal to

2500g

The health problems seen in children depends on the following except

Complexion

Neonatal deaths are due mainly to the following except

Gender

The influence of heredity on child development can be manifested in

Temperament

One of the following is a process that determines birth weight

Intrauterine growth rate

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net