

A neonate is said to be premature if the birthweight is less or equal to 2500g

The health problems seen in children depends on the following except Complexion

One of the following is not a neonatal infection Spondylosis Neonatorium

Remainthe baby is usually associated with Youngest Children

One of the following is a process that determines birth weight Intrauterine growth rate

The following are domains in child development except Intrauterine growth rate

The following are domains in child development except Financial

The influence of heredity on child development can be manifested in Temperament

Causes of neonatal diarrhoea include the following except When babies are kept close to their mothers

Environmental influences affecting development of children in school include the following except Rivalry

Neonatal deaths are due mainly to the following except Gender

Whatsapp: 08089722160 or click here for TMA assistance

Practice E-exams & Chat with course mates on noungeeks.net